

Case Study – HexArmor

folder

hexarmor.com website

HexArmor came to Full Circle with a young company and an ambitious goal; to become the industry leader in protective gear using their patented technology. Full Circle worked to create a complete and comprehensive brand, identity and marketing program for HexArmor including tradeshow displays, ads, website, brochures and direct mail. HexArmor has grown to become a significant player in their industry, expanding their distribution world-wide, while also being honored as the number one New Michigan Company to Watch.
